

The Bell
Policy Center

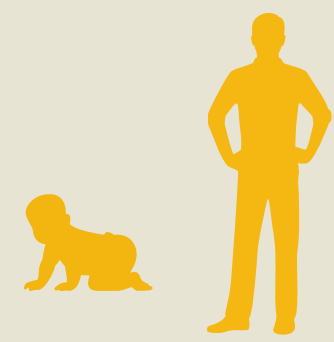

Education Matters

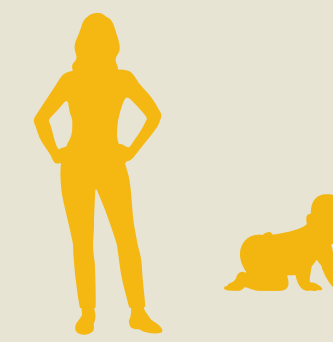

Choose the highest degree level an adult member of your household has reached.

Bachelor's

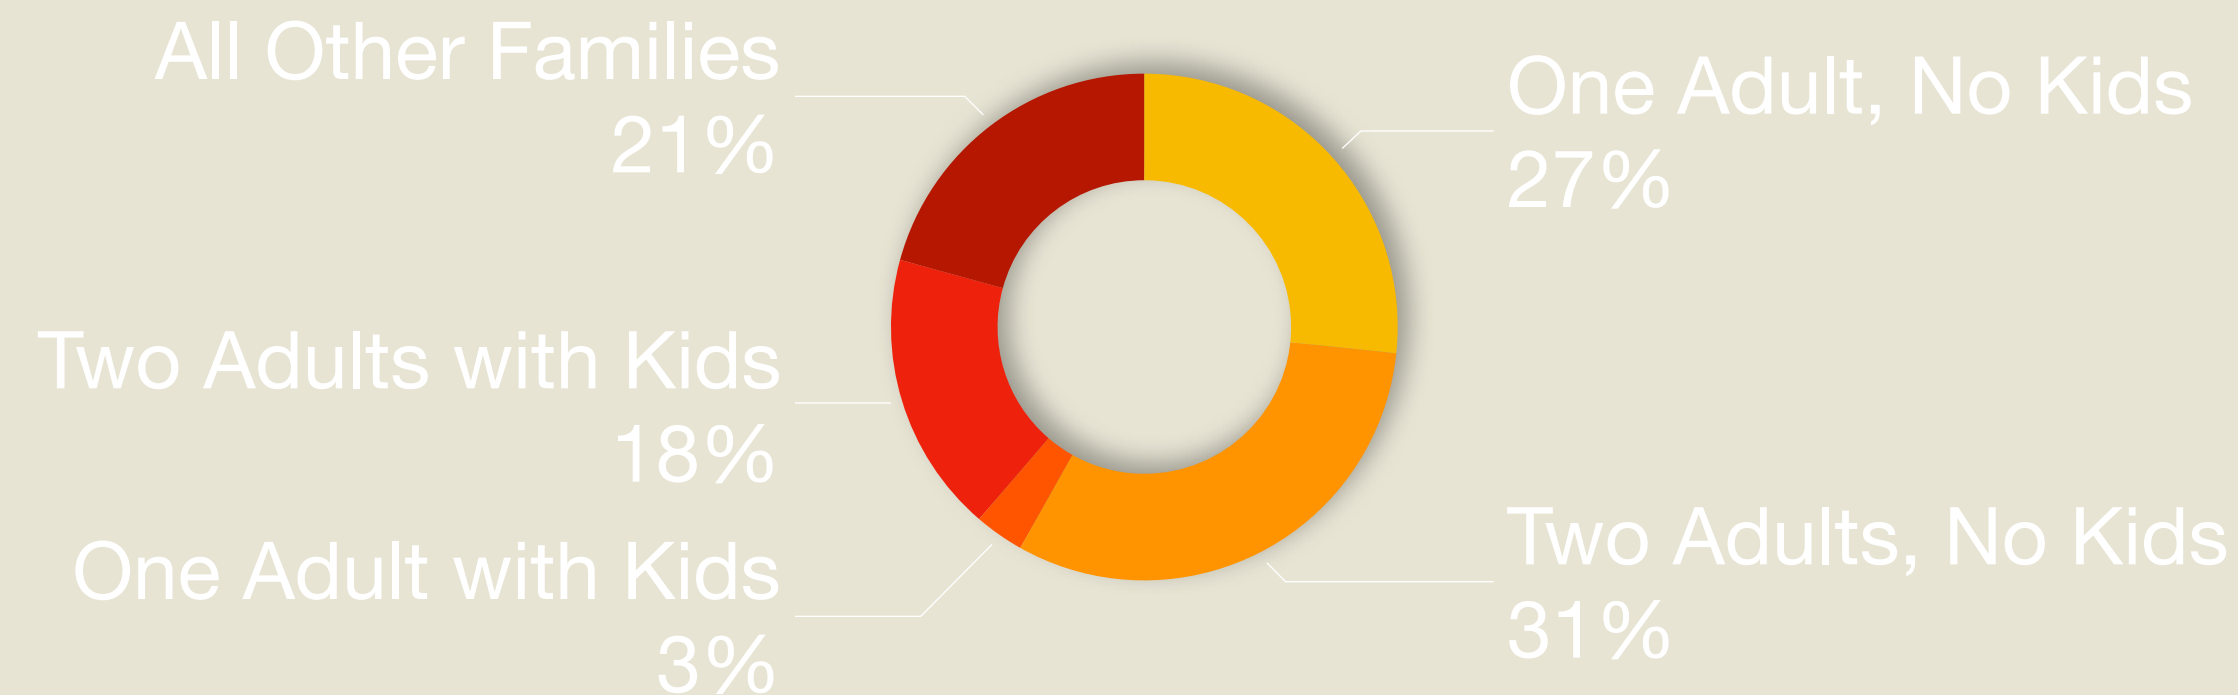

Masters or higher

Single with 1+ kids

Overall, families with children make up a smaller percentage of middle income families than either singles or couples without kids. However, single parents, you're not alone! Around 3.2% of middle income families are just like you.

Continue