

The Bell
Policy Center

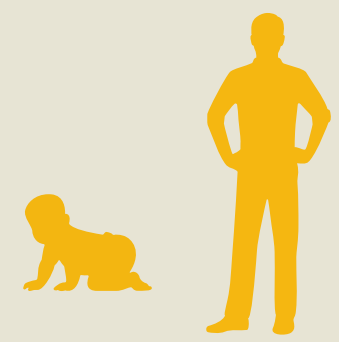

Education Matters

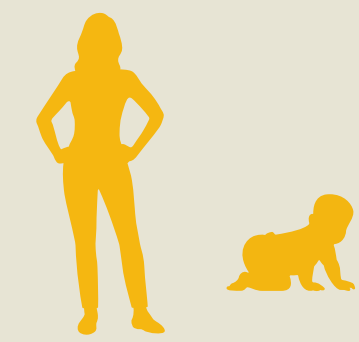

Choose the highest degree level an adult member of your household has reached.

Bachelor's

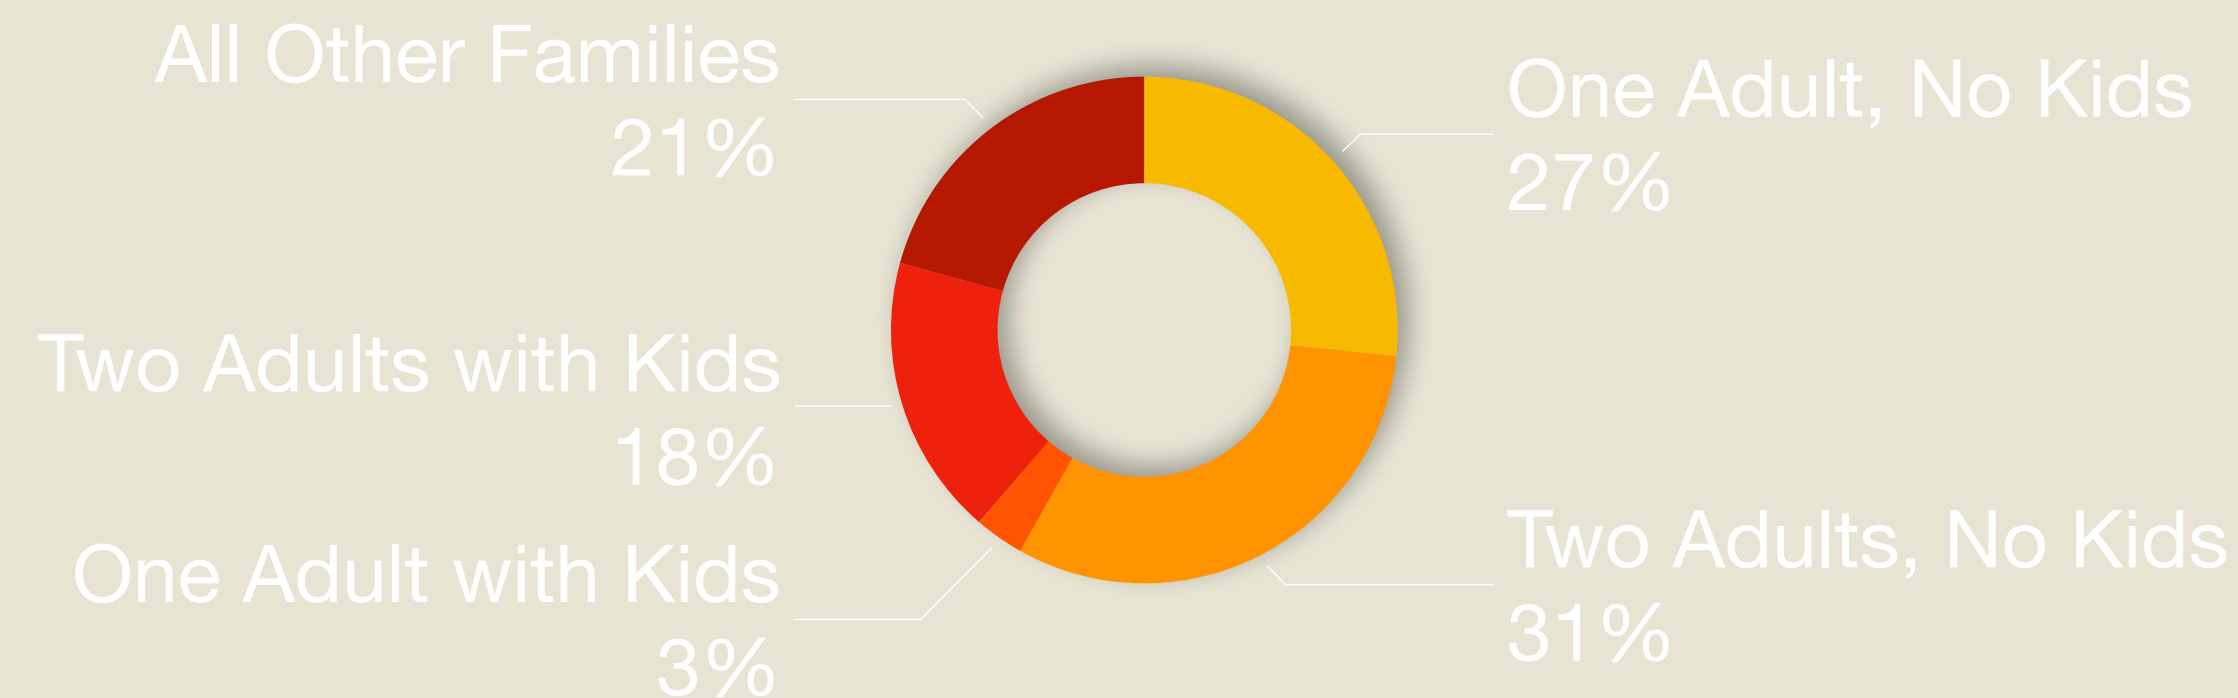

Masters or higher

Two Adults with 1+ kids

Overall, families with children make up a smaller percentage of middle income families than either singles or couples without kids. However, couples with children make up around 18.2% of middle income families in this state.

Continue