

The Bell
Policy Center

Education Matters

Choose the highest degree level an adult member of your household has reached.

Bachelor's

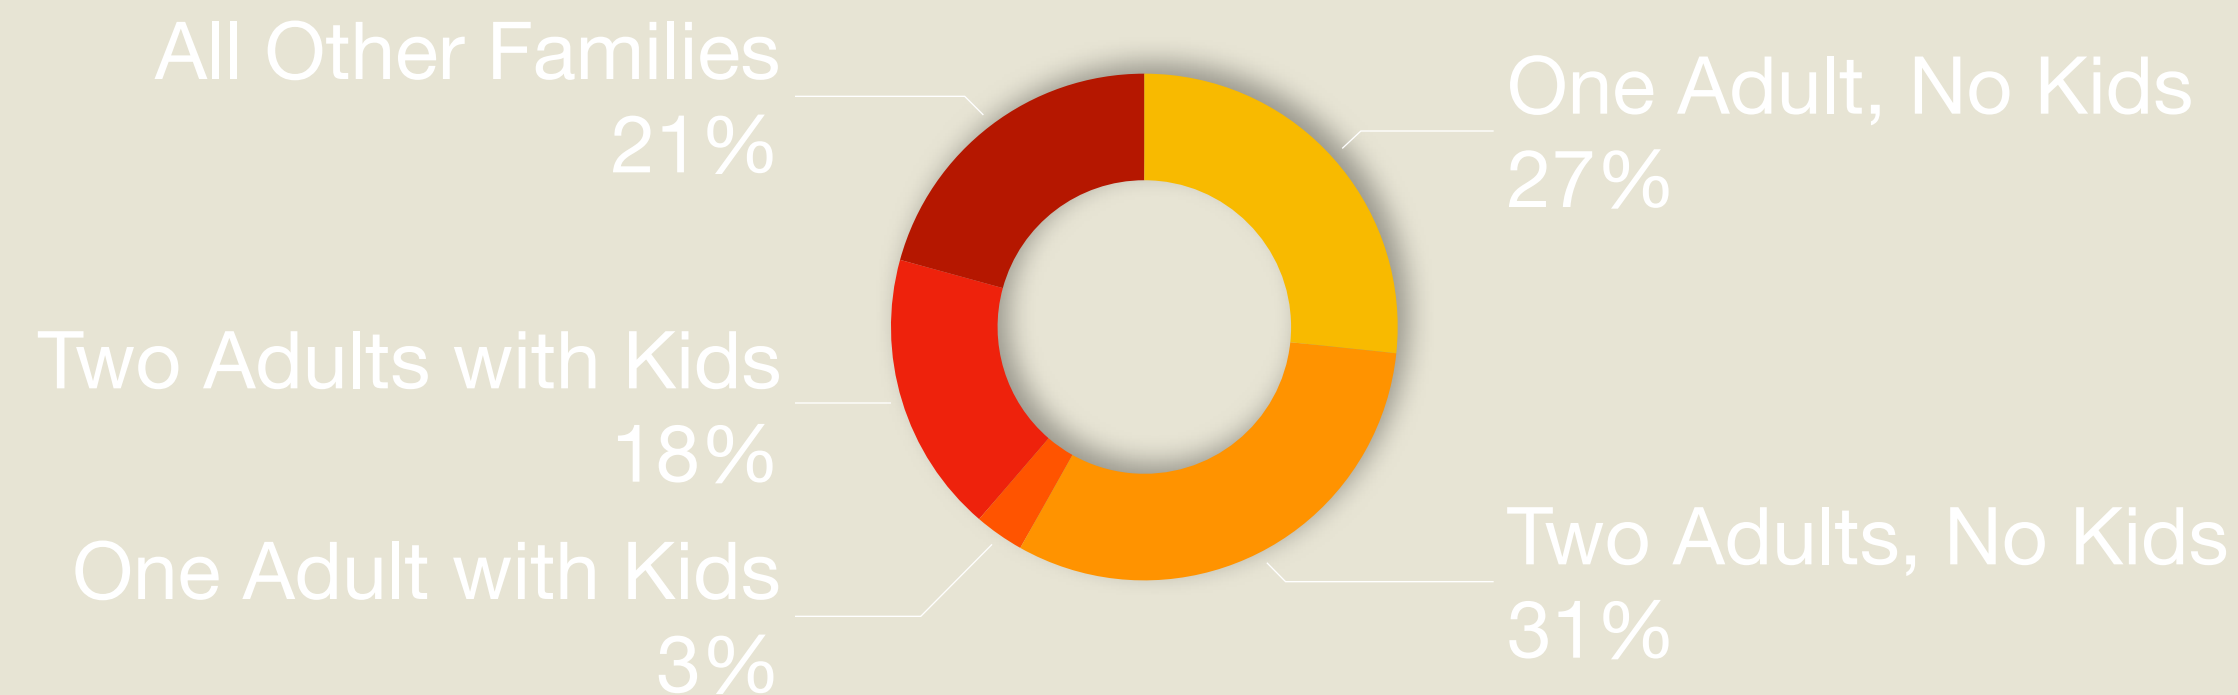

Masters or higher

Single

In this case, single doesn't mean alone. Around 27% of Colorado middle income households are single with no kids, just like you. This figure has remained pretty stable over the past few years too.

Continue